The Official Opening of our Pastoral Centre

The 19th May 2018 was indeed a memorable evening for our Parish as we officially opened our new Pastoral Centre. We wish to acknowledge with deep gratitude all those who made the Official opening of our Pastoral Centre on 19th May 2018 possible:

- Those who made the Centre possible in the first place
 - a. The Parish Finance Committee who led the project throughout;
 - b. The Buildings Committee, who were invaluable in providing their individual expertise selflessly at all stages;
 - c. The Parish Pastoral Council for their support and commitment;
 - d. The Pastoral Centre Committee who have in recent months taken on, with great energy, the fitting out of the Centre and getting it up and running;
 - e. The Archdiocese of Dublin for its unstinting support on the buildings project and for its financial backing of the pledges, without which we could not have undertaken this project;
 - f. All of the people who helped with the fundraising.
 - g. Most of all we would like again to express our appreciation to the hundreds of parishioners who supported us, and continue to support the Centre, financially.
- Those who contributed to such a memorable evening;
 - a. The Archbishop of Dublin, Diarmuid Martin, for his attendance.
 - b. The 4 choirs who performed beautifully, the Altar Society, Altar Servers, Ministers of the Word, Eucharistic Ministers and our Sacristans Simon & P.J. Our gratitude to all the leaders of these groups.
 - c. The Scouts and St Mary's Band who added so much to the evening.
 - d. Those who looked after the flowers, the cleaning, the decorating with flags and bunting.
 - e. Those who were so generous in providing food and those who served it up on the evening.
 - f. And especially the full house that attended this most special evening in our parish.

May it mark the beginning of the use of the Pastoral Centre as a welcoming beacon of light alongside our churches to all comers in the decades to come.
