Redemption

This week we are reminded in both the Old Testament and the New that with God there is always redemption, we can change and be part of Christ's Family no matter what our past history, or however low we perceive our state to be.

The prophet Isaiah tells of a wonderful vision he had of the Lord in Heaven, and how he felt unclean in such company. God sent a seraph with a burning coal to purge his sins, so that Isaiah found the courage to speak and accept the role of messenger.

Likewise Saint Paul tells us of his past life persecuting the Church of God, that he was not worthy to be called Apostle. Yet, he was chosen. "By God's grace that is what I am" he tells us.

Saint Peter realised after the miraculous catch of fish that he was in the company of greatness and felt he was unworthy; "Leave me Lord, I am a sinful man".

Indeed, by our base human nature we are all sinners. Even while accepting this do not forget that by God's grace we are all chosen to be followers of Christ and heirs to His Kingdom.

Here we are, and Christ has sent us to be his witnesses.
