Holy Orders; God's love poured into our hearts

This week our Deacon Gerhard will receive his Holy Orders and will become a priest of the Catholic Church. We look forward to him celebrating his first Mass in St Mary's on Tuesday 18th June. It will be a very happy occasion for him and for his family and friends and for all of us parishioners who have come to know him in his stay in Maynooth.

It's very appropriate in this context that last Sunday was Pentecost Sunday. We see where the promise of the risen Christ was fulfilled, tongues of flame descended on the Apostles and they were filled with the Holy Spirit to strengthen and enlighten them in their work. This Sunday Saint Paul tells us that "character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given us."

It is with great joy that we wish Gerhard the strength and love of the Holy Spirit to continue his journey and his mission with Jesus, and we hope that wherever that journey takes him he will remember the people of Maynooth in his prayers and in his heart.
