

PARISH OF ST MARY'S MAYNOOTH AND LADYCHAPEL

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

About this Data Protection Policy

This policy explains when and why the Parish of St Mary's Maynooth and Ladychapel, called "the Parish" in the rest of this document collects personal information about our parishioners, how we use it, how we keep it secure and your rights in relation to it.

With your permission we collect, use and store your personal data, as described in this Data Protection Policy and as described when we collect the data from you. The Parish Priest is the Controller of all data held by the Parish.

We reserve the right to amend this Data Protection Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check our website <http://www.maynoothparish.org/> No amendments will be made retrospectively.

The Parish will always comply with the Irish Government and EU General Data Protection Rules (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website of the Data Protection Commission <https://dataprotection.ie/>

How we protect your personal data

The Parish has implemented a generally accepted high standard of technological and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse or unauthorised access or destruction.

Only relevant and authorised members of the Parish Finance Committee have the required passwords to access financial data held on the Diocesan Pastoral Management System.

Please note however where you are transmitting messages or information to us over the internet we cannot guarantee this to be 100% secure because it is outside our control.

The Parish will notify you promptly when we become aware of any breach of data which might expose you to serious risk.

Who else has access to the information you provide us with?

In the course of providing services to you the Parish may pass some of your data to Third Parties who are our services providers, agents or subcontractors for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf. An example of such Third Party would be MailChimp which is an Internet Service Provider the Parish uses for group or Parish wide email notifications.

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

The Parish Priest as the Controller will disclose only such data as is necessary for the Third Party to deliver the service. The Parish retains a contract with such Third Parties to ensure they keep our information secure and to verify that they may not use it for their own purposes.

Such provision of service also applies to the Archdiocese, which has the power of oversight over Parish affairs. Our data interactions with the Archdiocese are carried out under a Data Processing Agreement that clearly defines the legal obligations of secure processing and of keeping data confidential.

The Archdiocese in carrying out its functions can also act as a service provider to our Parish using secure software such as the Diocesan Pastoral Management System as it currently does in administering to all parishes of the Diocese.

The Parish will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any Third Party without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as described above for confidential service provision.

How long does the Parish keep your information?

We will keep your personal data on our system for as long as you are a parishioner and as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations and legitimate interests in the running of the Parish.

We will review retained personal data from time to time to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If the review indicates we are not entitled to do so we will initially retain such data in secure archived form to comply with any legal obligations (e.g. compliance with tax regulations, defence of any legal claims and the like). Thereafter all unrequired personal data will be securely destroyed.

We will securely destroy any banking or taxation information immediately it is no longer needed.

Your rights

Your rights under the GDPR:

- To access your personal data
- To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed
- To have your personal data corrected
- To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances
- To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed
- To have your personal data transferred to yourself or to another in certain circumstances

You have the right to take any complaints about how we process your personal data to the Data Protection Commission <https://dataprotection.ie/>
