Re-opening of the Pastoral Centre

The Pastoral Centre has been closed since March 2020 due to Covid. After a meeting on Tuesday last, we decided to re-open it. Unfortunately, due to social distancing there will be only one meeting per night allowed. This means, for the moment, you may not be able to have the particular night you had previously. Parish Groups who will be using the Centre will have a list of guidelines which must be followed in order to keep all safe.

Laraghbryan Cemetery Sunday

7th November, 2021

3.00 p.m.

With the removal of most Covid restrictions, Cemetery Sunday will take place on Sunday 7th November at 3pm in the graveyard.

Normally we have prayers on the first Sunday in November but as we were unable to hold Cemetery Sunday during the Summer we will have a Mass instead this November to remember all our loved ones interred there.

To help pay for the upkeep of the Cemetery there will be a collection at the Cemetery gate on November 7th.

Alternatively there are envelopes available at the back of the Church for your donation and you can drop them back into the Parish Office.

If you wish you can donate online through the cemetery 'GoFundMe' which can be found on our facebook page @laraghbryancemetery.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lord, it is fairly easy to help our neighbours, to give things that are left over and that we no longer need, even to put ourselves to some trouble so that they may have something to eat and clothes to wear. But your commandment calls us to go further and to love our neighbour as ourselves, to experience that we need them as they need us, that when we forgive them it is our own sins that we forgive, and when we pity them it is because we ourselves need pity.
